

NO CARDINAL FOR AMERICA

First Secret Consistory of Pope Pius X. Held on Yesterday.

TWO RED HATS BESTOWED

Monsignors Merry del Val and Callegari Are Made Members of Sacred College.

(By Associated Press.)

ROME, Nov. 9.—The first secret consistory of the new pontificate was held to-day. No American cardinal was appointed.

Several appointments of archbishops and bishops were made, including that of the Rev. J. J. Hartley as archbishop of Manila.

The pontiff walked from his apartment accompanied only by the personages in immediate attendance on him. As he entered the hall of the consistory the picture produced was very striking, the red gowns of the cardinals and the white robes and gold and red mantle of Pope giving a pleasing contrast to the scene. The commanding appearance of the pontiff was somewhat softened by his silver hair, under which his blue eyes gleamed with pleasure and friendliness. When the Pope had seated himself on the throne all those present, one by one, paid him homage. When the doors had been closed and a guard had been stationed before them, Pope Pius, in a harmonious voice, intoned a prayer. Cardinal Caviglioglio, dean of the Sacred College, then stood up and in a few words thanked the pontiff for having put aside his private preferences and accepted the burden of the Church. The Pope replied in an allocution, which received universal approbation.

HIS ALLOCUTION.
The Pope began by recalling that first he wished to decline the pontifical dignity. He then said:
"Before all, our efforts will be to retain the faith inviolate and to provide for the eternal salvation of all, without saving ourselves any trouble or fatigue."
"For truth's sake it is necessary that in governing the Church we should be free to be free and not the subject of any power. But this is not the case, and that is what we lament as being a grave injury to the Church."
"Your precious help and advice, my venerable brothers, assist me in fulfilling the duties of my most important office and I shall always ask for your counsel under all grave circumstances. We shall not follow any path but that of our predecessors, namely, to restore all in Christ. As Christ's truth, we must go towards truth."

Continuing, the Pope said: "The Pope, in his office, cannot separate the faith from politics. Therefore, he being the head and sovereign ruler of the most perfect society, namely, the Church, constituted among men and of men strictly composed, he certainly must wish that between him and the princes of the world and the rulers of public affairs mutual relations should exist, as if he wished to provide for the society of the faithful in all parts of the world. Efforts are now being made to destroy the liberty of the Catholic Church, which the Church must absolutely oppose as that is not a promotion of liberty but corruption of liberty."

"However, following the Redeemer, we must pity and pardon the sinners, while trying by all means to become reconciled with them."
CARDINALS NAMED.
Then the real business of the day was proceeded with, the appointment of the two cardinals—Monsignor Merry del Val, the papal secretary of state, and Monsignor Callegari, archbishop of Padua—being announced by the Pope, who said in Latin: "What have you to say?" In response the cardinals raised their caps as a sign of affirmation on their part. This was all, so every doubt was laid to rest for the present regarding the appointment of another American cardinal.

The Pope arose and bestowed the Apostolic blessing, after which he returned to his apartments.

KILLED; BURNED.

All Implicated in Lillian Shaw's Murder Under Arrest.
(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BRISTOL, TENN., November 9.—Jimmie Preston, the young negro who was arrested near Mountain City, Tenn., a few days ago, charged with having murdered Lillian Shaw, a mulatto woman, and with afterwards burning her body, has confessed, implicating Jonah Tilley and America Phillips, the latter a mulatto woman. Preston tells that he and Tilley shot the woman through the head, having been promised a hundred dollars for the deed by America Phillips, who felt that her husband was on too intimate terms with the Shaw woman.

After the body had lain for twenty-four

MUNYON'S PAW-PAW

Gives Exhilaration Without Intoxication

AN ABSOLUTE CURE

For Insomnia, Nervousness and all Stomach Troubles.

It Makes Old Folks Feel Young and Weak Folks Feel Strong.

I can tell the public to know the truth; know it as I know it.—MUNYON.

I believe there is a cure for every disease—I believe that human life can be prolonged—I believe that people should die only from old age, and I also believe and know that my Paw-Paw-Remedy will not only relieve much suffering, but add many years to the average life.

In my opinion dyspepsia and indigestion are the cause of most ailments. Dyspepsia means nervousness, sleeplessness, impure blood, catarrh, sluggish liver, kidney and heart affections. No person can be happy—no person can see the beauties of life and enjoy its pleasures who suffers from any form of stomach trouble.

I cannot recommend Paw-Paw too highly for all forms of indigestion and nervousness. This remedy also acts wonderfully well on the liver, blood and kidneys, but I believe its greatest office is its marvelous effect upon the stomach and nerves. It is really a nerve food and vitalizer.

It gives exhilaration, without intoxication. It does what whiskey or beer cannot do. It relieves the nerve tension. It stimulates every fibre and puts into active force every tissue of the body. It lifts one into the altitude of hope and holds him there. It is a bridge that enables the weak and sickly to cross dangerous places. It feeds and nourishes the nerves, so that the blood corpuscles will be constantly revitalized and the blood of the vital forces will be almost imperceptible. In other words, it will supply a sufficient quantity of life matter to take the place of waste.

Instead of irritating the nerves and stomach, it soothes and strengthens them. Almost every human being some times requires a stimulant. NOT AN ALCOHOLIC STIMULANT (not a stimulant that buoy up for a moment and then cast down to lower depths of depression), but a stimulant that will give an abiding strength and lasting force.

My Paw-Paw aids the stomach to digest hearty foods and to make good, rich blood, which again, in turn, strengthens the nerves, vitalizing all the tissues, and soon produces muscles, tissues and bone. It is my opinion that the clergyman in this country could do no greater service for the cause of temperance than to advocate the general use of my Paw-Paw, for by its use drunkenness would be lessened, and the morals and health of the community greatly improved and then cast down to lower depths of depression), but a stimulant that will give an abiding strength and lasting force.

A wife whose husband is addicted to drinking can do nothing better for herself or family than to get a bottle of this Paw-Paw, and whenever her husband feels the need of a tonic, give him a tablespoon of Paw-Paw. She will find that he will soon lose all cravings for strong drinks—that his appetite will soon become natural, that his nervousness and longing for excitement will disappear, and he will be perfectly satisfied without alcoholic stimulants and harmful beverages.

All druggists. Large bottle, 15c. Paw-Paw Laxative Pills, 25 cents a bottle.

MR. MORGAN SARCASTIC

Will Not Take Advice From Frenchman Interested in Panama Canal.

ASKED TO GET IN LINE

Minister of New Republic Writes a Flowery Letter to Senator From Alabama.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—M. Philip Buneau-Varilla, the envoy of the new Republic of Panama, to-day sent the following letter to Senator John T. Morgan, of Alabama:

"Mr. Senator.—As a champion of the completion of an inter-oceanic canal across the American isthmus, as the minister plenipotentiary of the new Republic, the life of which has sprung from an explosion of the ardent desire of turning into reality this dream of centuries, I feel myself bound to express to you my admiration for the display of indomitable will you have shown in the service of this noble conception.

"The fact that we have fought, both with all the energies of our souls, for a common ideal, is not lessened by the minor fact of having defended different solutions.

"If I have not been on the same side as you, allow me, Mr. Senator, to say that it is simply because I entered into the field of active life about one-third of a century after you.

"The solution, which was the better one fifty years ago, when there was scarcely any ship drawing more than seventeen feet of water, has gradually seen its superiority vanish and transform itself into a deep inferiority, according to the constant increase of the draft and of the length of ships.

"These gradual and scarcely noticeable changes in the technical necessities of the waterway are accountable for the difference of opinion between you, the champion of the solution of the middle of the nineteenth century, and the champions of the solution of the beginning of the twentieth century.

"Now, Mr. Senator, I come to you and most respectfully entreat you to take the high place which is due to the honored veteran of the noblest fight that ever took place for the progress of the world and the welfare of mankind.

"Let us throw not to the winds the title which the thankfulness of humanity owes to you, that of the father of the isthmian canal; I beg you to take the laurels of a victory which is yours by keeping with a generous and Christian mind before you the necessities of the ocean traffic has made inevitable.

"You will well crown a noble life inspired by the greatest, the most patriotic, the most disinterested aim."

Senator Morgan admitted that he had received a letter from M. Buneau-Varilla, and in reference to the communication said:

"I have not discussed the letter in public and the fact that it was written, came from another source than the one I have signed by Mr. Varilla, who professed to be the minister plenipotentiary of the Republic of Panama. The writer made me a flattering proposal to get in line by supporting the new Republic, but I take no advice that will come from American citizens and not from a Frenchman, who is interested in the Panama canal."

HANNA MAY SUCCEED SENATOR JOHN T. MORGAN

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—At the caucus of Republican senators to-morrow a resolution will be offered, declaring that the chairman of the Committee on Inter-oceanic Canals should be a Republican. It is likely to be adopted, in which case the Committee on Committees, when it reports will provide that a Republican senator shall succeed Senator Morgan. It is supposed that Senator Hanna will be named for the place.

Baptist Sunday Schools.

The regular monthly meeting of the Baptist Sunday-School Association of Richmond and Manchester was held last Sunday afternoon at the Grove Avenue Baptist Church, and was well attended. The exercises, including the musical selections by the choir of the church, with Mr. Manly B. Ramon, as accompanist, were very enjoyable. Messrs. R. R. Gwathmey, Robert M. Smith and J. Garland Pollard, members of the Executive Committee of the Baptist Council of Richmond, Manchester and vicinity, made short talks. Mr. T. H. Ellett, for the Association Committee on Catechism, reported that the catechism manuscript had been printed, and one thousand copies had been received for distribution. It was decided to donate fifty copies of the catechism to each school in the association, the remainder to be disposed of under the direction of the association.

MANY SCOTTISH RITE RECEIVE DEGREES

Many Scottish Rite Masons of the Valley of Virginia are now in the city attending the annual convention of the Grand Lodge of the Scottish Rite, which is being held at the Masonic Temple and degrees from the fourth to the thirty-second are being conferred.

Yesterday at 8 A. M. the reunion began with a large attendance. Degrees from the fourth to the thirtieth, inclusive, were conferred. An excellent lunch was served at 2 P. M. and supper at 8 P. M. During the afternoon and evening degrees from the thirtieth to the thirty-second were conferred.

This morning the nineteenth to the thirtieth degrees were conferred and the remaining degrees of the thirty-second degree were conferred.

Thursday morning the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Virginia, will hold its grand annual convocation. This meeting will be held in the morning, while at night Acacia Temple, A. A. N. M. S. will meet.

Howitzer Smoker.

The Richmond Howitzers' battery will have a smoker in the cosy quarters at the army on North Eighth Street to-night from 8 until 11, at which the members of the Howitzers' Association will be present in numbers, and a full turnout of the battery is anticipated. Speeches will be made by prominent gentlemen and a delightful social evening is assured.

State Canvassers.

The Board of State Canvassers will meet at the Capitol this morning to certify the election of John J. Campbell, of Bedford, to the Senate, and Major J. W. Bruce, of Danville, and Hon. Henry E. Lee, of Nottingham, to the House. The members will take their seats in their respective branches to-day.

Board of Aldermen.

The Board of Aldermen will hold a regular meeting to-night. Most of the business of the board will be routine in its nature, though there is a good deal of this on the calendar.

Baby for Adoption.

There is a fine baby at the Amshouse. It is about five weeks old, and Superintendent Davis desires some one to adopt it.

ELECTRIC LINE TO YORKTOWN

Scheme to Develop a Peninsula Section Which is Now Isolated.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

YORKTOWN, Va., Nov. 9.—The extension of the lines of the Newport News Railway and Electric Company to Yorktown is about to materialize.

Mr. H. P. Barney, superintendent, was here Friday, having gone over a close survey of the projected route, and ascertaining what may be done in the way of obtaining rights of way.

The idea of the company is to cross the eastern end of the Peninsula, bridge Back River near its upper end, and gain access into York county, through Poquoson, thereby tapping the richest section of Tidewater, and affording transportation facilities to a country entirely devoid of anything of the kind.

Poquoson is the most populous section of the Peninsula, and affords a large volume of trade, both export and import, to the nearby towns of Newport News, Hampton, Phoebus and Old Point. The fish, oyster and trucking interests of this particular spot are immense, involving a great deal of capital.

The terminal of the road will be established here for the present, land having been promised the promoters, affording every facility needed. A great deal of private donations of rights of way has also been donated, and is, practically speaking, secured.

The tourist trade will enter largely as a factor in the work of the road, and special attention will be afforded them.

Mr. Barney says that every measure will be exhausted to build the road, without the slightest idea of speculation.

They propose to make the initial operation of the road by dummy steam engines, to be followed by a standard gauge electric road later.

Both mail and express matter will be afforded much better schedules and as the resources develop, the road will be pushed through Gloucester county to West Point, gaining all the rich trade of the tier of counties lying between the York and Rappahannock.

This has nothing in common with the Jamestown, Yorktown and Old Point line, which charter expired some time since. The management have decided not to put down a tie, obtain a charter or put a single dollar into the scheme before matters are in a perfect shape.

Judge Sidney J. Dudley, Hon. Harry Libby, ex-congressman, C. A. Messick and others are interested in the promotion of the road.

SPLENDID CATTLE.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

DUBLIN, Va., November 9.—A very fine lot of export cattle left here last week, filling the requirement of such both in weight and quality. They were bought by R. H. Glendy, of Charles W. Scott, of Lynchburg, who finds time to do some fancy farming on 500 acres of land, near this place, as well as run street railways, telephone companies, real estate deals and things in the live city which he has made his home since leaving the Southwestern.

The splendid cattle averaged 1,555 pounds and numbered forty head. Four of them averaged 1,700, the largest of the lot tipping the beam at 1,740.

The defeat of C. E. Jordan for county treasurer came as a great surprise to everybody. He had proved himself so efficient in the discharge of the duties of the office that it was a foregone conclusion in the minds of most persons that he would be elected to succeed himself. But fate and Republican feeling dictated otherwise, and his friends can only console themselves by the fact that his successful opponent is likewise a good man and likely to prove a capable and efficient officer.

PROMINENT WEDDING.

Miss Lucy Roane and Mr. Christopher C. Almond.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SHACKLEFORD'S, Va., Nov. 9.—A beautiful fall wedding took place Wednesday, October 23th, at 3:30 P. M., in Shackelford's Methodist Episcopal Church, when Miss Lucy Roane was married to Mr. Christopher C. Almond. The church was prettily and tastefully decorated with evergreens, and the pulpit was banked with flowers and potted plants. Just over the chancel an arch had been placed in the center of which was suspended a lovely hue of white chrysanthemums, under which the couple stood whilst the Rev. G. B. Smith, using the beautiful Methodist ceremony, pronounced them man and wife. The organ, hidden by the banks of flowers in the pulpit, was presided over by Miss Grace Post, and as the notes of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin were struck the bridesmaids entered in the following order: Misses Rosale Bland and Salome Post, Ruby Roane and Chrystal Leigh, Annie M. Bland and Brooke Carr. The groomsmen were Messrs. Garrett

The bride, who is the attractive and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Roane, was becomingly crowned in white crepe de chine, over tulle, with tulle veil to match, and carried a shower bouquet of Bride roses. Her maid of honor, Miss Ellmarie Almond, sister of the groom, carried a bouquet of roses. The ribbon-bearers were Misses Lucy and Mary Almond. The bride entered with her brother, Mr. Mosby Roane, who gave her away. She was met at the altar by the groom, with his best man, Mr. M. B. Seward. At 1 o'clock a delightful luncheon was served at the hospitable home of the bride's parents, and immediately after the ceremony the bride party left for Almondville, Gloucester county, where a reception was given the happy couple by Captain and Mrs. W. W. Almond, parents of the groom.

W. C. T. U.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ALBEMARLE, Va., Nov. 9.—Mrs. C. C. Newton, state organizer of the W. C. T. U., lectured here Wednesday night, November 4th. Owing to rain the audience was small, but a branch of the W. C. T. U. was organized.

THE DELINEATOR FOR DECEMBER.

Among the notable contributors to the December Delineator are: Richard Le Gallienne, with a delicate romance, A Wedding Ring in the Garden, containing lyrics in an Italian ballad best vein; W. Frazer, with an Indian tale of great power and charm, The Net of Leo; Albert Bigelow Paine, with Cages and Captives; and a delightful sketch founded on the folktale of the collector; Harriet Prescott Spofford, with a love story of unusual interest, entitled, Dr. Lloyd's Christmas Gift; and Andrew Lang, with a clever, amusing story—a travesty on the usual fairy tale—King Prigio and the Wicked Stepmother. Other features of this attractive Christmas number are articles by Gustav Kobbé, N. Hudson Moore and J. C. Hemmatt, and the third installment of The Evolution of a Club Woman, the serial story which is causing such comment in feminine club circles.

The December Delineator, at a price of 10 cents, is exhibited in the four pages representing Babyhood, Childhood, Girlhood and Motherhood the work of Bernard Housman, and in Jules Guerin's interpretation of Clinton Scott's fine poem, Nazareth Town. Verse of the highest character and special articles by Lewis Mumford, and a complete and interesting and helpful information round out the number.
